

2014–2015 Small Grants Competition Request for Proposals

Purpose

The Center for Poverty Research (CPR), located at the University of California, Davis invites proposals for its 2014–15 Small Grants Competition. CPR seeks to fund research that will expand our understanding of the causes and consequences of poverty. The goal of this program is to fund proposals focused on our core research areas that display sound research design and high potential impact. CPR anticipates funding up to 4 proposals, up to a maximum of $25,000 per award.

About the Center for Poverty Research

The Center for Poverty Research, founded in September 2011, is one of three poverty centers with core funding from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation (ASPE). One of its core missions is to facilitate non-partisan academic research on poverty in the United States.

Contact Information

Proposals must be received by Monday, September 15, 2014 (5pm PST).

Applicants should complete the web form located at:

<http://poverty.ucdavis.edu/form/2014-2015-small-grants-competition-application>.

For more information or for questions concerning your proposal, contact us at povertycenter@ucdavis.edu