

Child Poverty Research, Public Policy and the Road Ahead: What We Have Learned and Where Should We Go Next?

UC Center Sacramento
1130 K Street, Suite LL22, Sacramento, CA 95814
Tuesday, February 28, 2017

- 8:00 AM Conference Registration
- 8:30-9:10 AM Poverty and Inequality in Educational Outcomes: Are Schools the Great Equalizers?
Michal Kurlaender, Professor of Education
- Discussant
Elisa Wynne, Senate Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review
- 9:10-9:50 AM Economic Segregation and Children's Well-Being
Jacob Hibbel, Associate Professor of Sociology
- Discussant
Sara Kimberlin, California Budget & Policy Center
- 9:50-10:00 AM Break
- 10:00-10:40 AM Why Poverty Predicts a Child's Future – and What To Do About It?
Ross Thompson, Professor of Psychology
- Discussant
Tracey Patterson, California Food Policy Advocates
- 10:40-11:20AM Children of Undocumented Immigrants: Basic Facts, Research and Policy
Erin Hamilton, Associate Professor of Sociology
- Discussant
Jennifer Hernandez, California Labor & Workforce Development Agency
- 11:20 AM--12:00 PM Helping Kids: The Role of Government in Children's Lives
Marianne Bitler, Professor of Economics
- Discussant
Jessica Bartholow, Western Center on Law & Poverty