

$120,000 in Grant Funds Available!

Would you like to go abroad to make a difference in the world? We will help you!

Graduate students: either field research or practical, “hands on” application.

Undergraduate /Professional students: work in conjunction with a Non - Governmental Organization (NGO) in a developing country. This is a joint initiative with the UC Davis Undergraduate Colleges/Divisions.

Some possible topics for projects:

- social innovation/entrepreneurship
- food security
- environmental issues
- poverty alleviation
- renewable energy
- community improvement
- global inequality
- human and animal health
- international development
- other pressing matters of a developing country

If you want to have a life-changing experience, visit our website and apply now: blumcenter.ucdavis.edu

Carolina Tavares worked with school children in Haiti as part of a multi-language literacy initiative.

➤ Graduate Student Award - PASS (Poverty Alleviation through Sustainable Solutions):
Deadline: March 31st 2017

➤ Undergraduate & Professional Student Award - PATA (Poverty Alleviation Through Action):
Deadline: February 28th 2017

Contact: blumcenter@ucdavis.edu