

Public Scholars

UC DAVIS

HUMANITIES INSTITUTE

Mellon Public Scholars Fellowship

The Mellon Public Scholars program introduces graduate students to the intellectual and practical aspects of public humanities. It does so through a two-credit seminar in Spring quarter, faculty mentorship, and a community-based project over the summer. Applicants do not need to have a project or faculty member in mind, and their research may not immediately relate to community scholarship. All that is required is an interest in public humanities and enrollment in a PhD program in the humanities, arts, or humanistic social sciences.

Expand your skillset beyond the university
Grow your network beyond your department
$7,500 summer stipend for fellows
$2,000 research funds for faculty mentors

Information Sessions

November 4, 12:10PM

November 12, 4:10PM

DHI Conference Room (Voorhies 228)
Lunch and snacks will be provided.
Students and Faculty are encouraged to attend.

Please direct any questions or RSVPs to
Rachel Reeves, rlreeves@ucdavis.edu