

REGISTER BY APRIL 25, 2014 AT SONRSVP.COM. SPACE IS LIMITED.

SECOND UC DAVIS

Qualitative Health Symposium:

Using Qualitative Methods to Advance Health Research

A one-day, skill-building and professional-development symposium to highlight and demonstrate qualitative research methods as well as provide networking opportunities for researchers interested in qualitative or mixed-methods health research.

8 a.m.-5 p.m.
Wednesday,
April 30, 2014

UC Davis,
Sacramento
campus

FEATURING

Ellen F. Olshansky

Director and Professor at UC Irvine, Program of Nursing Science; Affiliate Faculty at UC Irvine, School of Humanities, Department of Women's Studies

Stefan Timmermans

Chair and Professor at UCLA, Department of Sociology; Medical sociology editor of Social Science and Medicine

Agenda and details
available at sonrsvp.com

This FREE event sponsored by:

Betty Irene Moore
School of Nursing

Clinical and Translational
Science Center

Outreach Research & Education
Program, Comprehensive Cancer Center

Latino Aging Research
Resource Center

Center for Reducing Health Disparities

Center for Healthcare Policy and Research

For more information contact Stuart Henderson
at stuart.henderson@ucdmc.ucdavis.edu or (916) 703-9220 or Carolina Apesoa-Varano at ester.apesoa-varano.ucdmc.ucdavis.edu or (916) 734-1159

UC DAVIS
HEALTH SYSTEM

