

Geographies of Poverty Conference

UC Davis Student Community Center, Multi-Purpose Room

Friday, November 16, 2018

- 8:00-8:30AM                    Conference Registration
- 8:30-8:45AM                    Welcome and Introductions
- 8:45-9:30AM                    Decoupling Schools and Neighborhoods: Safety, School Location, Social Ties, and Neighborhood Perception
Julia Burdick-Will, Johns Hopkins University
- 9:30-10:15AM                    Inequality and Place: Children's Neighborhood and School Contexts
Ann Owens, University of Southern California
- 10:15-10:30AM                    Break
- 10:30-11:15AM                    Identifying Explanations for the Health Advantages and Disadvantages Experienced by Hispanics in the United States
Fernando Riosmena, University of Colorado Boulder
- 11:15 AM-12:00PM                    Segregation and the Initial Provision of Water in the United States
John Parman, William and Mary
- 12:00-1:00PM                    Lunch
- 1:00-1:45PM                    From Immigrants to Americans: Race and Assimilation during the Great Migration
Marco Tabellini, Harvard University
- 1:45-2:30PM                    Urban Neighborhoods and Integration of the Latino Second Generation
Maria Rendon, UC Irvine
- 2:30-3:15PM                    The Ethnic Segregation of Immigrants in the United States, 1850-1940
Katherine Eriksson, UC Davis
- 3:15-3:30PM                    Break
- 3:30-4:15PM                    Blockbusting in Urban Neighborhoods and the Erosion of Black Wealth
Alison Shertzer, University of Pittsburgh
- 4:15-5:00PM                    Fair Housing for the Next 50 Years
Paul Jargowsky, Rutgers University